

Scepter™ 2.0 is Here!

The Next Generation of Automated Cell Counting.

Scepter, the first handheld automated cell counter, brought portable and precise cell counting to the palm of your hand.

Scepter 2.0 now expands your ability to precisely count particles as small as 3 μm in diameter for compatibility with additional cell types such as stem cells, blood cells and yeast. With an increased concentration range (up to 1,500,000 particles/mL) and our new powerful software, you have the industry's finest instrument for effortless cell analysis at your fingertips.
